NotebookCompanion L

15.0" - 15.4"

The perfect travel companion for your business trip
- with a separate Notebook case

The spacious NotebookCompanion L from DICOTA is perfectly equipped for your business travels. Thanks to the robust and water-resistant exterior material as well as high-quality manufacturing it is especially tear-proof and durable.

The generous and sophisticated interior and exterior layout provides for well-organized storage and worry-free traveling. Your mobile equipment and clothing find lots of room on the inside. Suit, shoes and co. are placed in the large main compartment in the interior which includes an integrated bag for toiletries. The shirt compartment provides for wrinkle-free shirts.

The Notebook is perfectly protected in the removable, especially cushioned Notebook case and the bag can be fastened to the telescope handle if necessary. Power supply units and cables are placed in the integrated cable bag. The exterior pockets offer room for pens, business cards, cell phone, tickets, etc.

The large, especially smooth-running wheels in connection with the stable single handed telescope handle made from high-quality aluminum make transport a pleasure. In order to pull the case from deep baggage pockets the NotebookCompanion L an additional handle cup has been placed on the underside.

The new NotebookCompanion is available in two identical sizes L (36 liters capacity) and M (24 liters capacity) as well as in a handy carry-on bag format NotebookCompanion S (16 liters capacity. without the removable Notebook case and cable bag).
